

Tigers: 1st Grade

Bobcat Badge

First badge earned by Cub Scouts of 1st grade or older. Each new Cub Scout must earn his Bobcat, even if he has never been in Cub Scouts before. The Bobcat is only earned once.

Tiger Badge

First graders work on their Tiger badge over the course of their first grade year. They earn it by completing 6 Required Tiger Adventures and 1 Elective Tiger Adventure.

The Cub Scout Program is designed such that each year, the Cub Scouts have Required Adventures, and a variety of Elective Adventures they can explore together.

Required Adventures:

My Tiger Jungle

Games
Tigers Play

Tiger Circles:
Duty to God

Team Tiger

Tiger Bites

Tigers in the Wild

Parents can sign off on Tiger Adventures in their Cub Scout's handbook for their year.

★ All Elective Adventures are designed to be done as a Den OR as a Family. Talk to your Den Leader about which adventures are on their schedule for the year, and which they'll leave open to your family to explore.

Families are meant to be part of the FUN Cub Scouting Adventure.

Tiger Circles: Duty to God Must be done with the family. This is a required adventure!

When an Adventure is completed (whether at home or with the den), the Den Leader notifies the Advancement Chairman of it, and the Cub Scout will receive the corresponding Adventure Belt Loop at the next Pack Meeting (normally the third Tuesday of the month). It's a great opportunity to acknowledge the hard work and effort of our Cub Scouts and give them immediate recognition.

Curiosity, Earning your Stripes

Floats and Boats

Good Knights

Rolling Tigers

Sky is the Limit
